

MURDER ON THE PLAINS—COL. A. W. BABBETT KILLED—INDIAN DIFFICULTIES.

A train arrived from Salt Lake on Sunday last, bringing the startling intelligence that Col. A. W. Babbett, Secretary of Utah Territory, and two men who were accompanying him, were killed on the plains about one hundred and fifty miles beyond Fort Laramie, by a band of Cheyennes, numbering some twelve or fifteen, who had watched the party ever since they left the Platte river, and fell upon them the first time they were scattered enough to make their game sure. They had stopped to encamp for the night, and were engaged in different directions getting wood, water, and forage for the stock, when the Indians made their appearance. The Col. became very much excited, and commenced firing his pistols before they were in shooting distance, and altogether without effect, after which he fought desperately until he was struck by a hatchet from behind, which felled him, and he was immediately dispatched. One of the men attempted to assist him, but ineffectually, as the other would offer no resistance at all until they were both cut down and horribly mangled.

The latter of the above information was obtained by a French trader, who went among them and secured the most of the Colonel's papers, among which were several drafts, one to the amount of seven thousand dollars, all of which are at Fort Laramie. The Colonel's watch they refused to give up.

It will be recollected that Col. Babbett's train was attacked, and one man killed, and a woman and a child made prisoners, and some stock taken from him, in the vicinity of Wood river, by a band of these same Indians, soon after they started.

This is a lamentable affair, as the Col. was extensively known as a public man throughout the Western country, and was highly honored by all who knew him. He was formerly a resident at Council Bluffs, where he still owned considerable property, and as a public officer he stood high in the confidence of the people and the government.

We cannot let this melancholy affair pass without calling to mind some of the remarks made by the anti-administration papers when the news of Gen. Harney's battle with the Indians at Ash Hollow, early in the season, was received. The General was represented as a barbarous and inhuman monster, and the government as little better than barbarians, for sending such a man there. But as soon as he is recalled troubles again commence, and will continue, we fear, more or less, until they receive a thorough chastising.—Nebraskan.

ANECDOTE OF GEN. HARNEY.

We were told an excellent anecdote the other day of Gen. Harney, by one of the officers who was with him at the battle of Ash Hollow, and afterwards at Fort Pierre.

At the treaty held at the latter place, at which the General had a great talk with the chiefs of all the tribes, he stood a few steps in advance of his staff, and was dictating to the interpreter what to say, in his usual gruff and authoritative manner: "Tell them," said he, "that their great father at Washington has sent me here to make them respect the treaties they have made with the whites."

"Tell them that I am furnished with a great number of braves, horses and cannon, and that I shall make war upon them as long as an Indian can be found on these prairies if they don't."

"Tell them that they must not kill or rob any more emigrant trains that are crossing the plains, or steal anything from the whites in any manner."

"Ask them if they remember the fight at Ash Hollow."
